→ 100% SPORTS SCHOLARSHIP IN DAVIDSON COLLEGE

Davidson has invited CCB to nominate three high performance athletes to compete for 100% scholarships. This a private college founded in 1837 and located in a 6665-acre suburban campus in Davidson, North Carolina. Davidson College's ranking in the 2021 edition of Best Colleges is National Liberal Arts Colleges, #17.

Lowell L. Bryan Scholarship

The Lowell L. Bryan Scholarship recognizes scholar athletes who are strong leaders and performers in the classroom and impact players at the NCAA D-I level on one of our 18 eligible teams.

Davidson awards two full tuition Bryan Scholarships to one female and one male athlete in each incoming class.

ATHLETICS Davidson competes at the NCAA Division I level in 19 sports. The Wildcats participate as a member of the Atlantic 10 Conference in all sports other than football and wrestling. Sports that compete in other conferences include football in Division I Football Championship Subdivision Pioneer Football League, and wrestling in the Southern Conference.

Each high school may nominate up to three students per year and submit a letter of recommendation via attachment to the nomination form.

Deadlines CCB students should send a request letter to Counselling before Sept. 20, 2021. Nomination materials must be submitted to Davidson by September 28, 2021. The selected students should fill in their applications for admission to Davidson College by October 15, 2021. No materials beyond the completed application for admission (including supporting recommendations) are required. Upon nomination, your nominee must:

Contact the Davidson College coach of their sport to provide career statistics and player profile information. Coach contact information can be found here. Apply for admission to Davidson no later by October 15. Early dates do not imply an Early Decision commitment. Please note, a nominee must move forward with recruitment with a Davidson coach in order to progress in the Bryan selection process.
