The John M. Belk Scholarship recognizes powerful students with demonstrated academic excellence, integrity, intellectual curiosity, willingness to take risks, and potential to be change agents in both their local and global communities. This is one of the nation's most prestigious and generous undergraduate scholarships. The program is built around our belief that, as a Belk Scholar, you possess unique talents that should be recognized and nurtured.

The scholarship provides:

- a four-year scholarship covering tuition, fees, room and board
- two special study stipends ($3000 each)

A candidate's record and recommendations must demonstrate academic excellence and purposeful engagement in the classroom, in student and civic organizations, on the athletic field, or in the arts. While academic achievement is paramount, Belk Scholars also exhibit intellectual curiosity and a commitment to both their local and global communities.

Located in the classic college town of Davidson, the campus is just 25 minutes from the city center of Charlotte, N.C.— a thriving urban dynamic of business, the arts, entertainment, and professional sports.

The freedom and trust fostered by the Honor Code allow for take-home and unproctored exams, self-scheduled final exams, and a profound sense of community and integrity that students carry into their lives beyond Davidson.

Long recognized as a leader in undergraduate research, Davidson provides students with collaborative opportunities with their professors on original projects and regular engagement in the kind of work typically reserved for graduate students at larger schools and universities.
